A Grand Community Effort

May 6, 2009

Under the direction of Valley of the Sun United Way, the Community Funding Collaborative grant initiative was created to assist agencies providing basic services to individuals and families in this time of economic turmoil.

The Child Crisis Center is one of the very thankful recipients of the Community Funding Collaborative grant for $35,000 to help us serve the very people affected so significantly by our current economic conditions.

We would like to thank all of the foundations, corporations and organizations that made this initiative possible and contributed to the fund to be awarded: Arizona Community Foundation, The Arizona Republic, BHHS Legacy Foundation, The Bidstrup Foundation, JPMorgan Chase, N.A., Lodestar Foundation, Nina Mason Pulliam Charitable Trust, Valley of the Sun United Way, Virginia G. Piper Charitable Trust, and Wells Fargo.
